INTRODUCTION

The goal of the Swedish Institute (SI) is for the scholarship holders to play an active role in the society in which they live. Your scholarship application should show an ambition to work with issues which, within your context and field of study/research, contribute to a global development in general and to the development of your country and region in particular.

The Swedish Institute is looking for applicants who display both intellectual ability and leadership potential, with the prospect of becoming future leaders in their chosen fields. Ideal candidates are ambitious young professionals who are able to demonstrate work and leadership experience, and who have a clear idea of how a study programme in Sweden would benefit their country and/or region.

In your answers below, please explain how you qualify for a scholarship to Sweden. You should not repeat information already stated in your CV, but elaborate and expand on the driving forces in your life, and things that inspire you.

Choose one of the UN Sustainable Development Goals (SDG) from the list below and describe how your professional position and/or engagement in a network/civil society organisation relates to that goal.

[Max1000 characters incl. spaces]

Describe, using concrete examples, how the master's programme you plan to study in Sweden will contribute to your ability to address the UN SDG you have chosen above.

[Max 800 characters incl. spaces]

Using concrete examples, describe what makes you an experienced leader and how you intend to develop your leadership skills further with an SI Study Scholarship.

[Max 700 characters incl. spaces]

What are your professional goals 3-5 years after your studies in Sweden and how will your time in Sweden help you with reaching those goals?

[Max 700 characters incl. spaces]
